- iii) The candidates are advised to remember his/her credentials, which will be applicable for all future reference regarding the examination/tests, downloading roll numbers/call letters/entering fee detail etc.
- iv) The candidates are advised to give their working mobile number and email ID, used by them in the online recruitment application (ORA) and ensure their working till the completion of selection process to avoid inconvenience. There is no other means of contacting them except their email & Mobile number and any information by HPRCA or its agency will be sent through SMS/e-mail in addition to notice on the official website of HPRCA.
- v) The candidates shall fill up their complete and correct particulars in the ORA forms to avoid rejection of candidature. Furnishing incorrect information may disqualify the candidate from appearing for recruitment to advertised post.

- vi) No other mode except online payment is acceptable for examination and other processing fees.
- vii) No. of post(s) is/are tentative and may increase or decrease from time to time for different categories of posts. If any, fresh requisitions received from any requisitioning authorities for the posts having common/similar R&P Rules/policy, they may be included in the present number of posts up to 30.06.2026 or the date of Computer Based/Written Objective Screening Test whichever is earlier. Therefore, all the candidates are requested to apply under their respective category (s) as the post of any reserved category can be included to be filled up on the basis of this advertisement. The number of vacancies & reservation of post is liable to be altered without any notice.
- viii) In respect of posts of various Departments/Institutions to be filled through a Common Examination, or posts pertaining to different districts under the district Cadre, the candidates at the time of document verification shall have to exercise their option in writing by indicating their order of preference for Departments/Districts. The selection/allocation of Departments/Districts shall thereafter be made strictly on the basis of the "Merit-cum-Option-cum-Availability of Post" formula. However, the desirous reserve category candidate may further opt that in case by considering him/her as MRC (Meritorious Reserve Candidate), he/she is not getting the post/department/district of his/her better preference/choice, then he/she may be considered in his/her respective reserve category for giving him/her better choice/preference for ultimate recommendation.
- ix) A meritorious candidate belonging to a reserved category, who enters the selection process on relaxed standards (i.e., under relaxed eligibility criteria including but not limited to marks, age and experience), except with respect to the fee component, shall be considered under their respective reserved category and would be deemed unavailable for consideration against unreserved vacancy.
- x) The minimum qualifying marks of written screening test/OMR/CBT shall be atleast 45% marks for general category candidates and 40% marks in the case of Scheduled Caste/ Scheduled Tribe/ Other Backward Classes/Wards of Freedom Fighters candidates. However, if the number of candidates securing the prescribed percentage of marks is less than the number of advertised posts, the Aayog may relax the qualifying percentage by a maximum of 5%, i.e., upto 40% for General category candidates and 35% for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes, and Wards of Freedom Fighters, for reasons to be recorded in writing.
- xi) Where a skill test (i.e. type and/or shorthand test) or physical test is an essential qualification, the candidate(s) will be required to undergo these tests for the prescribed speed/standard, which shall be of qualifying in nature. The candidates for the skill test or physical test shall be shortlisted based on the merit of multiple choice questions (MCQ) examination/CBT and the number of candidates to be shortlisted for typing test/physical test shall be as under:-
- Candidates equal to five times the number of posts advertised, if the number is less than 30.
 - 150 candidates, if the number is between 30 and 40 both inclusive.
 - Candidates equal to 4 times the number of posts advertised, if the number is greater than 40.
- xii) In case of multiple shifts CBT examination, the score of candidates shall be normalized using Z-Score Method (Mean and Standard Deviation Method) for preparation of the merit list.
- xiii) The recommendations of the Aayog will be valid till the appointments are offered to the candidates by the Appointing Authority.
- xiv) While preparing the final result, a category wise waiting list (panel) shall be prepared. The candidates placed in the waiting list/panel shall have no right to be appointed except when a selected/recommended candidate does not join and the waiting list is still in operation, which shall be for one year from the date of sending recommendation by HPRCA to the concerned appointing authority.

- xv) The waiting panel shall be as under:-
- a) Where the number of advertised posts is upto 25 then @ 25% subject to minimum of two candidates.
 - b) Where the number of advertised posts is between 25 to 50 then @ 15% subject to minimum of seven candidates.
 - c) Where the advertised number for each post is above 50 then @ 10% subject to minimum of eight candidates. Any fraction shall be rounded off to next number.
- xvi) The Aayog reserves the right to implement any clarifications/instructions, received from the Government during the recruitment process.
- xvii) The candidates must visit the website regularly for any further information regarding their roll numbers, admit card, documentation etc.
- xviii) As per instructions of the Government dated 11.06.2019 when an Economically Weaker Sections EWS candidate is not available for selection, the post(s) will be treated automatically as de-reserved and will be filled up from a non EWS candidate of unreserved category.
- xix) The candidate shall be eligible for appointment, if he/she has passed Matriculation and 10+2 from any school/institution situated within Himachal Pradesh. Provided that this condition shall not apply to Bonafide Himachalis.
- xx) Dispute, if any, shall be subject to Court jurisdictions of HP.
- xxi) The HPRCA reserves the right to change any other terms of the advertisement or to rectify the inadvertent/technical errors at any stage.
- xxii) The working experience, if any, required for any advertised post as part of the essential qualification shall have been acquired after obtaining the concerned basic qualification.
- xxiii) The candidates of reserved categories of other States i.e. other than State of Himachal Pradesh, shall be treated as General category candidates i.e. in General (UR) and the benefit of reservation and fee concession shall not be admissible to them.
- xxiv) The candidates shall be admitted to selection process provisionally subject to verification of their eligibility at the time of documents verification.
- xxv) In case of any doubt regarding the recognition of the institution from which the candidate has acquired the prescribed essential qualifications, the onus shall be on the candidate to prove that the said institution is a recognized institution.
- xxvi) The Aayog, before the closing date of advertisement, may club any post(s) having same essential qualification, nomenclature of the post as per R&P Rules, for the purpose of selection process.
- xxvii) Where the number of eligible candidates is less than the advertised posts, the Aayog may determine and notify an appropriate criterion for selection.
- xxviii) A meritorious candidate belonging to a reserved category, who enters the selection process on relaxed standards (i.e., under relaxed eligibility criteria including but not limited to marks, age and experience), except with respect to the fee component, shall be considered under their respective reserved category and would be deemed unavailable for consideration against unreserved vacancy.
- xxix) Where the number of candidates for a post is limited, the option of OMR based tests may be preferred by the Aayog in place of CBT.
- xxx) Such numbers of candidates shall be shortlisted by the Aayog for documents verification so as to enable the Aayog to recommend candidates for appointment and to maintain the required waiting panel.
- xxxi) If the number of eligible candidates at the stage of final selection is found to be less than the number of advertised posts, the additional available candidates who are next in merit and have qualified the benchmark of minimum prescribed marks may be called for document verification, in order to fill up the maximum number of advertised posts.

- xxxii) Where the number of eligible candidates is equal to the number of advertised posts, the Aayog shall consider any meritorious reserved category candidates against their own category in order to fill up the maximum number of advertised vacancies.
- xxxiii) At the time of document verification, the shortlisted candidate shall submit a written declaration regarding any past conviction by a Court of law. The candidate shall further disclose full particulars of all criminal cases/FIRs registered against him/her, whether pending or disposed of, along with the current status thereof, including the stage of trial, acquittal, discharge, or pendency of appeal. Suppression of any material information shall render the candidature liable to cancellation.
- xxxiv) Where applicable, the engagement of the selected candidates shall be as Job Trainee as per the Job Trainee Scheme-2025 notified by the Department of Personnel vide notification No. PER (AP)-C-B(15)-3/2024 dated 19.07.2025.

Important Note:- Candidates are advised to visit the Aayog's website from time to time for updates in their own interest.
